

Schools and school districts across California have an unprecedented opportunity to help students claim their share of $1.9 billion in CalKIDS scholarships.

Did you know...

- 60%+ of California's public school students are eligible for a CalKIDS scholarship worth $500 to $1,500?
- students can check eligibility in seconds and then quickly claim their account?

While the following tactics are proven to drive CalKIDS scholarship claims, we do encourage schools and school districts to find new opportunities for helping students claim their accounts.

Access to Statewide Student Identifier (SSID)

A student's SSID is needed to check their CalKIDS scholarship eligibility and claim their account. Making student SSIDs readily accessible is a critical step in making the process easy for students and families. Here are some ways school and school districts have successfully increased access to SSIDs:

- Designate staff members to provide SSIDs at school events, in class, and upon request.
- Make SSIDs available on student and/or parent portals for quick, anytime access.

Designate Time for Students to Check Their CalKIDS Eligibility

Students, families, and staff can check eligibility in seconds using the SSID Eligibility Tool on the CalKIDS website. The following are some ways schools and school districts have created opportunities for students and families to check their CalKIDS scholarship eligibility:

- Counseling appointments
- In the classroom This is especially relevant for AVID and college or career preparation classes.
- When discussing financial aid For example when students complete their FAFSA.
- At Back-to-School/Orientation Events

Influence Your Influencers

Creating opportunities for principals, counselors, communications officers, teachers, parent coordinators, and relevant staff to learn more about the CalKIDS program is a great way to scale your local efforts. You can request a presentation with a ScholarShare Investment Board (SIB) staff member at CalKIDS.org.

Communication Opportunities

Paid media will be running from August to October to generate awareness for the CalKIDS scholarship. The following communication tools should be leveraged during this time to maximize the impact of paid media across school districts. These key messages should be delivered in your personal style and tone.

Webinars

Hosting one-hour webinar presentations for students and families to learn about the program, check their eligibility, and claim their account is a great way to drive awareness and participation. Schools and school districts can request a presentation with a ScholarShare Investment Board (SIB) staff member at CalKIDS.org.

Additional Resources

The following resources are available to help support the efforts of local schools and school districts.

CalKIDS Marketing Toolkit

A library of assets has been created to support your outbound marketing efforts including fact sheets, flyers, posters, videos, and other promotional materials. The assets in the toolkit can be filtered by audience and resource type. The toolkit also includes a presentation deck that can be used to educate your community and staff.

CalKIDS Eligibility Tool

A student's eligibility can be checked in seconds by entering their SSID into the CalKIDS Eligibility Tool. If a student is eligible, the tool will prompt the user to claim their CalKIDS scholarship account, which takes less than a minute.

CalKIDS YouTube Channel

The CalKIDS YouTube channel is a great resource for video content including program overviews and how-to videos. Most videos are offered in both English and Spanish.

CalKIDS Social Media Channels

We encourage you to leverage the CalKIDS social media channels to amplify both our message and yours.
